

20th November 2025
2pm - 6pm

Mt Lawley Bowling Club
Cnr Storthes & Rookwood St,
Mount Lawley

"Lawley Room"

"IT PAYS TO CARE"
Lessons from the Front Line

Best Practice on how to Successfully Manage Injury Management

Join our Acclaimed Interactive Forum Panel share their stories with case studies on how they have successfully navigated the changes in legislation, achieved positive outcomes and explore the psychosocial risk management of workers' compensation.

Rebecca Harris
WorkCover WA, GM

Chris White
WorkCover WA, CEO

Sharon Stratford
Facilitator - IPTC

Dr Amy Bright
Occ Physician, OMEMA

Dr Craig Elliot
Spec. Physio, Pain Options

Mel Fisher
Org. Psyche, ex BHP

Lloyd D'Castro
Voc Rehab, Working Life

Taynee Vidler
Injury Mgr, GIO WC

Lee Spurr
MD, 360 Medico-Legal

OUR SPEAKERS

FACILITATOR

Sharon Stratford – It Pays to Care

Sharon has had an extensive 30+ year career in personal injury starting as a workplace rehabilitation physiotherapist to then having held senior leadership roles at WorkCover QLD in strategic and operational workers' compensation claims management as well as policy development, stakeholder engagement and prevention program design and implementation.

Regulator – WorkCover WA

Chris White, Chief Executive Officer & Rebecca Harris, General Manager Regulatory Services

Chris has over 40 years' experience in workers compensation and work health & safety policy. Prior to his appointment as CEO, WorkCover WA in 2019, Chris held senior policy & management roles at both WorkCover WA & WorkSafe WA. He has been a member of the WorkCover WA Board since 2017 and plays an important role in framing the state agenda.

Rebecca has over 15 years as a senior executive, is a high performer, with a focus on strengthening workers compensation & injury management to achieve positive results for workers and employers. As the GM Regulatory Services, WorkCover WA, Rebecca leads a division responsible for delivering state-wide communication & education, licencing, monitoring, compliance & enforcement functions throughout the WA scheme.

Medical Practitioner - OMEMA

Dr Amy Bright – Occupational Physician

Is a specialist medical consultant in Occupation Environmental Medicine. She is a qualified physiotherapist and a Medical Physician with international experience leading global projects. Amy is passionate and experienced in all aspects of Occupational Environmental Medicine. From caring for the community, injury and illness prevention and management, public health, medical legal, and advocating for safety.

Therapist – Pain Options

Dr Craig Elliott, Specialist Physiotherapist

He has over 20 years of clinical experience in the management of private and compensable patients. He has extensive experience working with employers to optimise injury management and workplace culture to improve outcomes. Craig has provided second opinion assessments for compensable bodies & private clients and has been involved in delivering musculoskeletal education for health professions (physios, medicos, ex physiologists).

Rehabilitation Provider - Working Life

Lloyd D'Castro, Managing Director/Psychologist

Lloyd possesses degrees in Psychology and Business with 36 years of experience as a Psychologist, Coach, Facilitator & Educator specialising in Psychological Health & Safety, Injury Management, Organisational Development and EAPs. He combines an evidenced based approach, principles of positive psychology with contemporary neuroscience literature to managing all injuries and/or illnesses.

Organisational Psychologist – ex BHP Global (between roles)

Melanie Fisher, former Global Head of Health and Wellbeing

Melanie is an experienced executive people leader, psychologist and Human Resource Professional who is results focused and combining her experience in both HRM, ER, Culture, Safety and Psychology. She has a passion for increasing purpose and engagement in work, improving health and safety outcomes and reducing psychological risk across the employee lifecycle so individuals can optimise wellbeing.

Lawyer – 360 Medico-Legal

Lee Spurr, Managing Director

Highly accomplished business professional with extensive expertise spanning the legal and healthcare sectors. He has a Commercial Law degree & is a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors). 360 Medico Legal provide expert medical opinions across all case types with Lee serving as a board member for the Starlight Children's Foundation WA and holds the position of Chair for Health In Mind Board of Directors

Insurer – GIO, Workers Compensation

Tahnee Vidler, WA Injury Management Specialist

Tahnee has worked across various areas of Workers' Compensation over the past 15 years including operations, policies, & claims. She holds a Bachelor of Sc. (Psychology) & currently chairs the West Australian Inter Insurer Injury Management Forum. Tahnee is passionate about removing systemic barriers to drive best practice across the personal injury industry.

